TCW Special Purpose Acquisition Corp. (the "Company") has determined that it is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2021 (the "Form 10-Q") by the prescribed due date for the reasons described below.

The Company is reevaluating the classification of its Class A common stock subject to possible redemption, which were issued in connection with the Company's initial public offering. In particular, Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 480-10-S99, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity, requires ordinary shares with redemption features that are not solely within the Company's control to be classified outside of permanent equity. The Company previously classified a portion of the Class A common stock in permanent equity. In connection with the reevaluation, the Company anticipates that its shares of Class A common stock subject to possible redemption will be reclassified as temporary equity in their entirety. The Company is concurrently evaluating the materiality of the anticipated reclassification and other related accounting matters in accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin 99.

The Company is working diligently to complete the Form 10-Q as soon as possible, however, given the scope of the process for determining the appropriate treatment of the Class A ordinary shares subject to possible redemption in accordance with ASC 480-10-S99, the Company is unable to complete and file the Form 10-Q by the prescribed due date without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company plans to file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicably possible.
